“ Dear John, Barbara, Mark, Diane, and Corrine,

Rudy and I send our sincerest sympathy on your loss.

There are so many memories as I look at your Mother's picture from our younger days that do bring a smile to me. The whole Budynekiewicz family always got together on Holidays. I especially remember the ones at your home and my Father coming by in the morning before dinner to carve the turkey. Of course we all know it was your Mother's cigarettes that was his pleasure. They certainly had a special bond.

We know you will miss her but we also know she is at peace now.

*Love,
Chris and Rudy*
