

Carol Ann Sakiewicz

August 21, 1957 - February 16, 2026

Carol Ann Sakiewicz, 68, passed away peacefully at home on Monday, February 16, 2026. Born August 21, 1957, daughter of the late William F. and Pauline E. (Poliuk) Sakiewicz, she was a graduate of South Hadley High School. Carol continued her education, earning her Masters' Degree at Western New England College. She worked for many years as a contract administrator for the Federal government, with assignments around our country as well as foreign postings. She was an avid reader, loved quilting, and in her earlier years enjoyed working at the South Hadley Friendly's, which her father owned. Carol is survived by her sisters, Jane Sakiewicz, and Ruth Tribou (John), both of Albuquerque, NM; niece Kimberly Tribou of Charleston, SC; along with nephews Gregory Tribou (Erlinda), and Timothy Tribou; and great nieces Avery and Aria Tribou, all of Albuquerque. To respect Carol's wishes, there are no calling hours, and burial in Holy Mother of the Rosary Cemetery in Chicopee will be held privately for family at a later date. Memorial contributions in Carol's name may be made to Dakin Humane Society, PO Box 6307, Springfield, MA 01101.

Tribute Wall

“ As her first cousin, a decade older, I used to babysit for Carol Ann and her two sisters in their hometown. Years later, as adults in professional life, we met up in Washington, D.C., and renewed our life stories. I visited her at her home in Rhode Island and learned about her admirable work with the federal government. My deepest sympathies to her family. Penny Jez

Penny Jez - May 03 at 10:22 AM

KW

“ God Bless you Carol! I can still see you in your South Hadley Tigers band uniform marching and ! May God rest your sole. ❤️

Karl Wailgum - February 21 at 06:04 AM