

David Gary Lagoy

April 13, 1953 - August 21, 2021

David "Gary" Lagoy of Chicopee passed away peacefully in His Home, with family showering him with love. David was born April 13, 1953 in Plattsburgh, New York. He was a son of Alice Eason Lagoy of Raleigh, NC. My brother was a get-to-the-point kind of guy. So I will write his words exactly how he spoke them to me.

"I am a people person, an FB quiz said so. David Gary Lagoy leaves behind a large loving family, and more than I can count friends and acquaintances.

I ain't putting this in the paper. What do they think I am made of MONEY!

I love you all and have liked the times we had together. I want no fights and no crying, I hate crying (sure you people person you). Just remember the happy times I may have given you. I'm ready to be with Ken, Mom, Danny and Jack. We'll all see each other again. Alright, that's enough kid. I love you, but that's enough for now."

My brother passed away before we added anything else. I watch as he fought and he did fight hard, but I guess some times it's just not enough. His life was shattered in a matter of months. So fast it made his head spin. I love you Gary, my people person you. For always.

I know he would want to say I love you all and was grateful to be part of each and every one of your lives.

Family and friends are invited to calling hours on Wednesday from 10AM-12Noon at Kozikowski Funeral Home, 565 Front St., Chicopee. Committal services and burial will follow in Ste. Rose de Lima Cemetery, Olsen St., Chicopee.
