

Dorothy V. Gawron

August 28, 1930 - January 6, 2025

Dorothy V. (Zaltek) Gawron, 94, passed away peacefully on Monday, January 6, 2025 at Vantage Health and Rehab in Wilbraham. Born August 28, 1930, daughter of the late John J. and Veronica (Prejsnar) Zaltek, she had lived in Springfield before moving to Chicopee. Dorothy retired from Eastern Etching, where she was an inspector and group leader. A parishioner of St. Stanislaus Basilica, she served her parish as a pierogi maker for many years. Dorothy was a proud member of the Polish American Veterans' Auxiliary, Andrew Balut Post, where she was Past President and Past State Sergeant. Dorothy was predeceased in 1975 by her first husband, Thaddeus Ossolinski, Jr., in 1993 by her husband Adolph M. Gawron, and by her twin sister, Helen Frankiewicz. She is survived by her loving daughter, Christine Kulig and husband Stanley of Chicopee; four beloved grandchildren, Christopher Kulig, James Kulig, Timothy Kulig and Gina Bradley; and nine treasured great-grandchildren. She was predeceased in 1990 by her daughter, Francine Kulig, and also predeceased by her grandson, Kevin Kulig. A graveside service for Dorothy was held on Monday, January 13th in St. Stanislaus Cemetery, Chicopee. Memorial contributions may be made to First Central Bible Church, 50 Broadway, Chicopee. MA 01020.
