

Edna Bury Stacia Walters

March 15, 1927 - March 9, 2018

Edna (Maziarz) Bury and Stacia (Maziarz) Walters were born on March 15, 1927, on Wheatland Ave in Chicopee. Edna or Eddy as she was better known, lived on Wheatland Ave most of her life where she lived with her husband Chester (Chuck) Bury until his passing in 1990. She leaves behind two sons, Edward, of Lewes, Delaware, and Steven, of Sequim, Washington, along with one grandson, three granddaughters, two great grandsons, one great granddaughter and her significant other, John Bennett still on Goodhue Ave. Stacia, on the other hand, moved between Chicopee and Baltimore, eventually settling in Baltimore, where she lived the last 40 years of her life. Stacia had three children, Tom Leonard, of Sydney, Australia, Dave Leonard, who passed in 2010, and daughter, Shelly Walters, of Isle La Motte, Vermont. Stacia leaves four grandsons, four granddaughters, and one great-granddaughter. The twins were preceded in death by sisters Josie Lyons, Emily Stefanik, and Mary, and brothers Joseph and Edward Maziarz. They are survived by their youngest sister Elsie Skowronski of Tucson, Arizona. Both worked as waitresses, Eddy working more than 30 years at Storrowtown Tavern, Stacia worked in restaurants in both Massachusetts and Baltimore and the Baltimore Convention Center for more than 25 years. Both loved to dance, go to the beach, play cards, and travel. Stacia passed on March 26, 2017, just days after turning 90, and Eddy passed on December 12, 2017. Family and friends are invited to attend a graveside memorial service that will take place at Fairview Cemetery, on Thursday, March 15, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. There are no calling hours. A luncheon will follow at The Munich Haus Restaurant in Chicopee Center.
