“ I was reminiscing this evening when my second grade teacher, Elaine Kulpa, came to mind. The year was 1967 at Foster Elementary in Hingham, MA. She was kind, patient, caring and very dear to me. She made me feel special! She taught us to sing “This Land is Your Land” which we sang every morning after the Pledge of Allegiance.

I sincerely extend my condolences to her friends and family and hope she rests in peace.

Respectfully, Sheryl Wade
