

Elizabeth C. Wrobleski

March 18, 1950 - December 24, 2016

Elizabeth C. (Schlatka) Wrobleski, 66, passed away suddenly on December 24, 2016 at Baystate Noble Hospital, with her loving husband at her side. Born March 18, 1950, daughter of the late Joseph and Stephanie Schlatka, she was raised and educated in West Springfield, and was a graduate of West Springfield High School. Elizabeth continued her education, graduating from the University of Connecticut, and then joining the US Army to enter a new master's program. She graduated cum laude as a registered physical therapist and went on to proudly serve her country as a member of the Army Medical Corps. She used her medical skills as a home health therapist for many years, until her diagnosis of muscular neuropathy forced an early retirement many years ago. Elizabeth was a devoted wife and mother, and enjoyed spending time as an avid knitter and reader. She looked forward to times spent at Expert Fitness in Westfield, where she was a longtime member. Elizabeth is survived by her beloved husband of thirty-nine years, Eric Wrobleski; her loving son, Stephen E. Wrobleski of Westfield; brothers, David Schlatka and his wife Linda of Harvard, John Schlatka of Alabama, and Joseph Schlatka and his wife Susan of West Springfield; and many nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 9AM from Kozikowski Funeral Home, 565 Front St., Chicopee, MA, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 10AM in St. Stanislaus Basilica, Chicopee. Burial with military honors will follow in St. John Lutheran Cemetery, Westfield. Calling hours are Monday from 3-7PM. Memorial contributions may be made to Spastic Paraplegia

Foundation, 1605 Goularte Place, Fremont, CA 94539.
