

Evelyn E. M. Bukowski

March 29, 1930 - March 21, 2021

Evelyn E. M. (Szczepanek) Bukowski passed away peacefully on Sunday, March 21, 2021 at Willimansett West Nursing Center. Born in Chicopee, daughter of the late Michael and Mary (Renkowicz) Szczepanek, she was a graduate of Chicopee High School, Class of 1945. Evelyn worked for many years as a personal assistant in the office of David Weiss, Public Accountant. She was a devoted communicant of Holy Mother of the Rosary National Catholic Church and served her parish in many capacities, including as a member of the United Womens' Society, bazaar worker, and pierogi maker. Evelyn was predeceased in 2012 by her beloved husband, Frank J. Bukowski, and is survived by her caring nephews, Stanley Maziarz, Jr. and wife Lynn of Chicopee, Michael Maziarz and wife Sarah of Chicopee, and Raymond Mason of FL; and cousins, Ronald Kuchta of Chicopee, and Gary Kuchta and Edwin Renkowicz of FL. She was predeceased by her sister, Eleanor Mason and husband Lon, nephew, Lance Mason, and niece, Dorothy Maziarz and husband Stanley. Her family wishes to thank the many neighbors and friends who tended to Evelyn's needs, allowing her to stay in her home for so long. Family and friends are invited to a Mass of Christian Burial for Evelyn on Monday at 10AM in Holy Mother of the Rosary Church, 20 Bell St., Chicopee, followed by burial in the parish cemetery. There are no calling hours. Memorial contributions may be made to the church or the Chicopee Public Library, 449 Front St., Chicopee, MA 01013.
