“ I will miss Aunt Frances so much. She was a very special aunt to me. I always enjoyed being with her and learning from her. I will miss all our times. You have your wings now go in peace and rejoin Armond. I will still think of you often and remember all the fun times we had and getting to know you. All the cookouts and birthday parties and who can ever forget the sunday before Christmas. It wasn't christmas if we weren't together. I have many memories which I will hold very dear. Go in peace now, your day is done, until we get to meet again you are always in my heart an not far from me. Love you Lots You are the best aunt anyone could have. God Bless, Collette
