“ I became friends with Gloria here at Villa San Marco. She and I and a few others would meet every evening at 8 pm and talk story into the wee hours of the morning. I visited her when she went to Sarasota, but then lost track of her. We both lived in Mass. That's how we started to know each other. I will always think of her fondly.

“ One of my favorite memories is of Auntie singing in the Heron East Christmas choir. She rehearsed for weeks and knew all of the songs.
