

Helen A. Swierad

December 8, 1921 - August 23, 2014

Helen A. (Savage) Swierad, 92, passed away peacefully on Saturday, August 23, 2014 at East Longmeadow Skilled Nursing Home. Born in South Hadley on December 8, 1921, daughter of the late Frank and Lena (Champagne) Savage, she has resided in Chicopee for the past seventy years. A communicant of Sainte Rose de Lima Church, Helen worked as a school lunch cook for the Chicopee schools, retiring after twenty years of service. She was also a member of the Federated Women's Club of Chicopee Falls, enjoyed organizing and traveling with bus tours, and spent time quilting and sewing. Helen was predeceased in 1994 by her beloved husband, Albin L. Swierad. Helen is survived by her loving sons, Kenneth A. Swierad and his wife Anna of Bennington, VT, and Dennis S. Swierad and his wife Mary of Monson; cherished granddaughter, Katherine Cirkoski and her husband Hristijan of New Jersey; step grandchildren, Brian Steinhoff and his wife Jennifer, and Todd Steinhoff and his wife Heather, and great step grandchildren, Brian, Jr., Ashley, Zachary and Henry, all of Vermont. She was predeceased by her sisters, Regina Pasterczyk, Alice Gourd and Lena Beaudoin, and her brother, Arthur Savage. A funeral home service for Helen will be held Tuesday morning at 11 AM in Kozikowski Funeral Home, 565 Front St., Chicopee, with burial following in Ste. Rose de Lima Cemetery. Calling hours will precede the service from 9-10:45 AM on Tuesday. Memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, Massachusetts Chapter, 264 Cottage St., Springfield, MA 01104.
