“Roma, Cindy, Ursula, and Doug. My sincere sympathies of the passing of your mother-in-law/mother. She was a wonderful friend to my Grandparents and to many of the original neighbors that first lived on Donlyn Drive in Chicopee. It is sad to think that she ends an era where she was last of the originals of Donlyn Drive. I know she will be missed. Cindy, you did so much for your Mom and I am sure she was very grateful for your love and your presence there each and every day. Roma, you went beyond the call of duty of taking time to make her days lighters as you do with anyone in a tough spot.

Please know I am two houses down if anyone needs anything. My love, prayers, thoughts with you.
