

Henry Labieniec

December 1, 1949 - February 4, 2025

Henry Labieniec passed away on Tuesday, February 4, 2025, with loving family at his side. He was born in Bialystok, Poland on December 1, 1949, to the late Stanislaw and Henryka (Bobowik) Labieniec. Henry immigrated to the United States from Poland in 1963, where he met his wife, Mary. Together, they created a life filled with love. They built a warm and welcoming home in Southwick, MA, where they shared many cherished memories and where he spent his remaining years.

In his younger days, Henry played drums in a Polish band called The Promien Band and was an avid soccer player. He earned an Associate Degree in Nuclear Physics from Hartford State Technical College and a Bachelor's Degree in Engineering from Western New England College. Henry worked as a Senior Project Manager in the nuclear field for forty-three years. He had many interests, including watching sports and old westerns, cooking, golfing and playing cards.

Henry is survived by his beloved wife of fifty-three years, Mary J. (Wolan) Labieniec; four loving children, Michael J. Labieniec and wife Denise of Wakefield, Kristina E. McCarthy and husband Dr. Kevin of Norfolk, Dr. Patricia Z. Labieniec and Todd Chamberlin of Southwick, Katherine M. Labieniec of Cohasset; ten grandchildren, Nicolo Labieniec, Kevin, Gavin, Cullen and Aidan McCarthy, Evan Chamberlin, and David, Conor, Kasia and Zofia Greaney; siblings, Frank Labieniec, John Labieniec, and Stella Labieniec; along with many nieces, nephews and dear friends.

Funeral services were held in Chicopee on Saturday, February 8th at Kozikowski Funeral Home with a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Stanislaus Basilica, followed by committal services at St. Stanislaus Cemetery. Memorial contributions in Henry's name can be made to Pan-Mass Challenge rider Dr. David Fisher, Henry's oncologist, by visiting donate.pmc.org and entering rider name David Fisher.
