“ My aunt was the best. Near impossible to get a picture of but I have a few. I am so grateful that she got to meet her great niece and hold her even though she said no because she was afraid. I even snuck a picture. When she still lived in Chicopee it was the best as we got to visit her and our grandparents at the same time and run back and forth from one house to the other. Those days were the best. I love you so much Chuchie and I miss you so much already. I keep saying that I can't wait to show you Peanut's new outfit or tell you about something she did when I go over next but you aren't there anymore. I hope and pray that you are watching us still. I love you.
