

Jane H. Socha

August 18, 1934 - July 25, 2013

Jane H. Socha, 78, passed away peacefully on Thursday, July 25, 2013 at Mercy Medical Center, with her loving family at her side. Born on August 18, 1934, daughter of the late Peter and Mary (Spieczny) Socha, she was a communicant of Holy Mother of the Rosary National Catholic Church. Jane was a graduate of Chicopee High School and the University of Maryland. She was employed as an Administrative Secretary for the federal government, working at Air Force facilities in Maryland, Japan, South Korea and England, among others. An active woman, Jane was a member of the parish committee, United Women's Society and crafters group at her church. She volunteered at the Chicopee Senior Center and the USO and Food Bank at Westover Air Reserve Base. Jane also devoted time to visiting residents of Willimansett and Birch Manor Nursing Homes. Jane is survived by her loving siblings, Dorothy A. Stahelski of Westfield, Edward P. Socha and his wife Donna of Spring Branch, TX, and Valeria R. Peters of Belchertown; her cherished nephew, Mark Stahelski and his wife Barbara of South Deerfield; and her cherished grand nephews, Daniel Stahelski and Robert Stahelski. Family and friends are invited to a Mass of Christian Burial for Jane at 10:30 AM on Saturday, August 3, 2013 in Holy Mother of the Rosary Church, 20 Bell St., Chicopee. Burial will follow in the parish cemetery. There are no calling hours. Memorial contributions may be made to the Holy Mother of the Rosary Cemetery Fund, 26 Bell St., Chicopee, MA 01013.

Cemetery Details

Holy Mother of the Rosary Cemetery

Rzasa Drive
Chicopee, MA

Previous Events

Service

AUG 3. 10:30 AM (ET)

Holy Mother of the Rosary National Catholic Church
20 Bell St.
Chicopee, MA