

Joseph Kulig

November 22, 1923 - December 20, 2022

Joseph Kulig, 99, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, December 20, 2022 at Vero Health and Rehabilitation of South Hadley. Born November 22, 1923, son of the late Wojciech and Bronislawa (Virz) Kulig, he was a parishioner of St. Stanislaus Basilica. Joseph was the owner and tailor of Kulig's Clothing, Inc. of Chicopee. He cared for his family and his business so devotedly through the years. Often times, on summer evenings, Joseph could be found in the shop, radio on, listening to the Red Sox game as he worked at his trade. Joseph was predeceased in 2014 by his beloved wife, Mary (Gawel) Kulig, and in 2022 by his treasured son, Wesley Kulig. Joseph is survived by his loving son, Mark J. Kulig, of Chicopee; caring daughter-in-law, Harriet Kulig, of Holyoke; three cherished grandchildren, Christopher Kulig and fiancée Rebecca Ruehlman, Laura Bibeau and husband Jeffrey, and their daughter Evelyn, and Wesley Kulig, Jr.; sister, Felicja of Poland; and wonderful extended family. Funeral services for Joseph will be held Wednesday from Kozikowski Funeral Home, 565 Front St., Chicopee, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 11AM in St. Stanislaus Basilica. Committal services and burial will follow in St. Stanislaus Cemetery. Calling hours are Wednesday from 9:30-10:45AM. Memorial contributions may be made to the charity of one's choice.
