“ Andrea & Amy, my heartfelt condolences on your loss. I literally have a lifetime of memories of your mother's kindness and humor-- from her taking me to the teachers' store to stock up on school supplies when I was a child, to helping me learn IEPs in graduate school, to the gifts she bought my own children. (You mom brought the first toy Carter ever had that he could activate on his own.) Your mom had a special talent for knowing what would engage and enthrall children. She will be greatly missed.
