“ Whenever Lissa and I saw each other. We had some good laughs. I will always remember her with her love of horses. She always called my Mom and was so kind to her. Will miss her on Facebook and our talks on the phone.

I am so sorry to hear this news. I went to high school with Lissa, and she was the person who introduced me to the beauty of cape cod, on a lovely trip with her parents in my senior year. She always made me laugh, especially with her nick name for me- Guido- as we just saw Risky Business at the theater, and for some reason it became a habit. I last saw her a few years back and sadly, lost touch. I cant tell you how much I will miss her and her way of bringing joy to people. All my love to her parents and brother.
