

Lois S. Miodowski

December 17, 1928 - April 28, 2021

Lois (Smith) Miodowski, 92, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, April 28, 2021 at Holyoke Medical Center, with her loving family at her side. Born in West Springfield on December 17, 1928, daughter of the late Warren and Edna (Robinson) Smith, she had lived in Agawam for most of her life. A graduate of West Springfield High School, Lois worked for many years as an underwriter for St. Paul Insurance Co. She loved singing and dancing and was runner-up in a Miss Senior Massachusetts pageant. Lois was active in the West Springfield Senior Center where she was part of the West Side Tappers. As a member of the Agawam Senior Center she enjoyed acting in their productions. She sang in a choir, and in her earlier years won a beauty contest on her brother's military ship. Above all else, family was most important to Lois. Her children and grandchildren were everything she had, and she was the best mom EVER. Lois was proud of her family lineage and was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She enjoyed gardening and loved eating vegetables, especially tomatoes and peppers. Lois was predeceased in 2007 by her beloved husband, Julian L. Miodowski. She is survived by her loving children, Ann L. Miodowski of Southwick, Warren L. Miodowski and wife Lyli of South Hadley, Steven M. Miodowski of Agawam, and Julie A. Martin of Fortuna, CA; cherished grandchildren, Derrick Obara, Ryan Martin, and Jake Miodowski; special great-grandson, Jayk; caring sisters, Marlene G. Perrah of Texas, and Andrea G. Guevin of Easthampton; and many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her brothers, Edwin and Norman Smith. Family and friends are invited to committal services for Lois in the chapel of MA Veterans Memorial Cemetery in Agawam at 2PM on Monday, May 24, 2021.
