

Lynsey N. Majka

September 28, 1993 - August 21, 2025

Lynsey N. Majka, 31, passed away peacefully on Thursday, August 21, 2025, with loving family at her side. Born in Holyoke on September 28, 1993, beloved daughter of Michael and Doreen Majka, she was a graduate of Ludlow High School, Class of 2012. Lynsey continued her education at Springfield College, earning a Masters in Athletic Administration in 2018. She worked as Assistant Director of Athletic Giving at Trinity College in Hartford for many years. Lynsey's love of sports was manifested throughout her life. She excelled at basketball and soccer, and was an avid golfer, following in her father's footsteps. Lynsey loved to travel, not only in the US, but also to many parts of Europe and South America. Lynsey is survived by her loving and supportive parents, Michael and Doreen Majka, of Ludlow; caring aunt, Nancy Majka and partner Rick Marrs, of Agawam, and uncle, Lee Kozikowski and wife Lori, and their children, of Westfield. A celebration of life will be held Tuesday, September 30th, from 4-7PM at Kozikowski Funeral Home, 565 Front St., Chicopee, MA. Burial in St. Stanislaus Cemetery in Chicopee will be held privately for family at a later date. Memorial contributions in Lynsey's name may be made to the American Cancer Society, 30 Speen St., Framingham, MA 01701.

“ Mike & Doreen - I am so very sorry for your loss. I had the gift of working with Lynsey during her graduate degree work. She was so very enjoyable to work with - I cherish those memories. Lynsey made a lasting impact on so many of us. My heart aches for you. You have been and will be in my prayers. Joel Dearing
