

Marian A. Pniak

April 27, 1930 - June 7, 2025

Marian A. Pniak, passed away peacefully on Saturday, June 7, 2025, at Vantage of Hampden, with loving family at her side. Born in Chicopee on April 27, 1930, daughter of the late Joseph and Mary (Furman) Pniak, she was a lifelong resident. A graduate of Chicopee High School, Class of 1947, Marian was a devoted parishioner of St. Stanislaus Basilica. She retired as a manager after thirty-three years of service for New England Telephone. In retirement, Marian worked in sales at the former Balakier's Department Store, and as a telephone employee at Mercy Hospital. She was a fashionable woman and enjoyed shopping and coordinating her clothes. Marian loved her family, and very often prepared her specialties of golumbki, pierogi, and fudge. She was devoted to her dogs and cats, especially her dog CJ. Marian was grateful for family, friends, and those who shared in her life and helped her at the end of her life. Marian is survived by her loving niece, Mary-Elizabeth Pniak-Costello and husband Thomas; loving nephew, John Pniak; and great-nieces, Mary Kate Jayco and husband Matthew, and Rosemary Costello. She was predeceased by her siblings, Ted, Chester, Herb, and Josephine Pniak. A calling hour for Marian will be held Saturday, June 21st, from 9:00-10:00AM at Kozikowski Funeral Home. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10:30AM in the chapel of Elms College, 291 Springfield St., Chicopee. Committal service and burial will follow in St. Stanislaus Cemetery. The family would like to thank the staff of Vantage Health and Rehab of Hampden for their compassionate and professional care. In lieu of flowers make donations to St.

Stanislaus School at 534 Front St. in Chicopee, MA.
