

Marianne C. Maciejewski

May 19, 1942 - November 22, 2018

Marianne C. (Lengieza) Maciejewski, 76, passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family on November 22, 2018, after a long battle with cancer. Born May 19, 1942, daughter of the late Michael and Sophia (Skiba) Lengieza, she was a communicant of the Basilica of St. Stanislaus, Bishop & Martyr. Marianne was a graduate of Chicopee High School, and furthered her education by earning a degree as a Licensed Practical Nurse. She worked at the Chicopee Municipal Home for many years before becoming a private duty nurse. Marianne was the first woman president of the Chicopee Municipal Employees' Union, and for twenty years was the secretary of the Crescents Show Band. She was a longtime volunteer at Harmony House of Western MA. Marianne is survived by her beloved husband of forty-seven years, Joseph "Macy" Maciejewski; loving twin brother, John M. Lengieza of Holyoke; many nieces and nephews, especially her cherished nephew and godson, Daniel J. Lengieza and wife Mary of Hampden; uncle, Stanley Lengieza of New York; special friend, Ruth Willemain, founder of Harmony House; and very good friend, Bobby Moriarty. Calling hours for Marianne are Thursday from 4-7PM at Kozikowski Funeral Home, 565 Front St., Chicopee, with a prayer service at 6:30PM. Burial will be private at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Harmony House of Western Massachusetts, 663 Pendleton Ave., Chicopee, MA 01020.
