“ So sorry to hear of your mother's passing. Unfortunately Dick and I will be unable to attend the funeral as I had foot surgery today and trying to recover. I know she will be missed by many as she always brought so much joy into everyones life. So wish I could be there.

“ I remember how she liked to laugh and have a good time. She was always telling stories about things that happened on the cruises she loved or elsewhere, with her distinctive cackle. She was also generous in giving away her watercolors. I have two from different seasons, and now they will provide a great memory.
