

Mary J. LaFlesh

September 25, 1928 - April 21, 2015

Mary J. LaFlesh, 86, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, April 21, 2015, with her loving family by her side. Born September 25, 1928, daughter of the late John and Bertha Pasek, she was a lifelong Chicopee resident. Mary was a communicant of the Basilica of St. Stanislaus, Bishop & Martyr, and a member of its Rosary Society. A retired seamstress for Chicopee Undergarment Co. she later worked at McCray's farm in South Hadley. Mary strongly supported higher education, earning her own GED at age sixty-five and ensuring that her family continued their education as well. She was an avid Red Sox and Patriots fan, a great cook, and enjoyed gardening. Above all else, she loved family times together, and especially doted on her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mary was predeceased in 2010 by her beloved husband, Leroy W. LaFlesh, Sr., and in 2013 by her brother, Edward Rojowski. She is survived by her loving children, LeRoy W. LaFlesh and his wife Emily of Chicopee, Deborah Niles and her husband Roy of Chicopee and Susan Ashby and her husband Michael of Mechanicsville, VA; six cherished grandchildren and nine very special great grandchildren; her sisters, Helen Pasek of Chicopee, and Jane Pezdek and Sophie Vargas and her husband Armando, all of California; and many nieces, nephews and cousins. Funeral services for Mary will be held Monday at 9AM from the Kozikowski Funeral Home, 565 Front St., Chicopee, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 10AM in St. Stanislaus Basilica. Burial will follow in St. Stanislaus Cemetery. Calling hours are Sunday from 4-8PM. Memorial contributions may be made to Shriners

Hospital for Children, 516 Carew St., Springfield, MA 01104.
