On April 21, 1954, she entered the congregation of the Franciscan Missionary Sisters of Assisi, formerly known as "Suore del Giglio." On February 2, 1956 Sister professed her first vows and on January 6, 1960, she professed her perpetual vows; both professions in Assisi. Following mission work in Italy, Sr. Norberta was sent to the United States in 1961, where she ministered to the priests and seminarians of the Franciscan Conventual Friars in Ellicott City, MD, and at St. Hyacinth Seminary in Granby, MA. In 1978, Sister Norberta was designated as the Delegate of the General Council of the FMSA in the USA. She was predeceased by her sister, Ana, and her brothers,
