

Michael Bergeron

March 16, 1961 - April 1, 2020

Michael Bergeron, 59, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, April 1, 2020. Born March 16, 1961, son of Jane C. (Pajak) Bergeron, he was a lifelong Chicopee resident. Michael was a Chicopee High School graduate, and continued his education at Western New England College, earning a Bachelors degree in Computer Science. He was a longtime programmer for Hobbytime Distributors in Enfield, CT. Michael was an avid sportsman and a dedicated member of the Chicopee Sportsmans' Club. Along with his loving mother, Jane C. Bergeron of Chicopee, and many friends, Michael shared his life with his feline companions, Binky and Gabby. Funeral services and burial in St. Stanislaus Cemetery will be held at a later date to be determined and announced. kozikowskifuneralhome.com

“ I can not express the emptyness we all feel with out Michael. He was gentle, kind with a sweet nature. He loved his family which included his cats because his face would express such joy when he spoke of them. He was at his best when he would design a program for the company. We was a joy to work with and he is irreplaceble as an employee and pricless as a human being.

*With Sympathy
