

Raymond A. Goudreau

April 16, 1940 - November 10, 2020

Raymond A. Goudreau, 80, passed away on Tuesday, November 10, 2020 at Holyoke Medical Center, with his loving family at his side. Born in Chicopee on April 16, 1940, son of the late Napoleon and Elodia (Champaine) Goudreau, he has resided in Holyoke for most of his life. He was a US Air Force veteran. Raymond retired from Channel 22 Television after more than twenty years as assistant director of engineering. He then spent years in private practice as a broadcast consultant. A jack of all and master of most trades, Raymond was always available to family and friends to help with their projects. He especially excelled at woodworking and baking his sourdough bread. Raymond deeply loved his family and was devoted to his beloved late wife, Lorraine (Cormier) Goudreau, who predeceased him in February of this year. Raymond is survived by his loving children, Cathie J. Morsch and husband Greg of East Longmeadow, Steven G. Goudreau and wife Allyson of Norwich, CT, and Donna C. Weber and husband Duane of Turners Falls; eight cherished grandchildren, Rebecca and husband Matt, Christine, Jennifer and husband Danny, Raymond, Heather, Cassidy, Jayden and Sophia; cherished great-granddaughter, Hannah; and brother, Richard Goudreau of West Springfield. All services for Raymond are held privately for the family.

kozikowskifuneralhome.com