“ I was sitting here remembering some of our camping trips and realized I was smiling. Then there are the many conversations he and I had when you and Mike went to get the pizza! 😊 Sooo many! I am so glad we had so many good times. The love that the 2 of you had for each other was so apparent. You two were my role model as to how couples should be. I love you both dearly. He was a fighter to the end. Now he is with Mike. I bet they are glad to see each other and are laughing and remembering all of our happy times. And to you Marie ... You are the best, loyal, loving amazing wife! There is no wife better in the WHOLE world then you! I really mean that I love you!

“ So many great memories! My first date with Mark, my husband of 53 years and your best friend was because of you. I remember long rides on weekends, listening to music and stopping to dance together. I remember so many wonderful shared moments: weddings, children, long card games, first homes and so much more. Thank you for bringing your loving, caring wife Marie into our lives. You will be missed. Love you, Jeanne (Mark's wife)

“ Hey boy Jimmy - my best friend for almost 70 years. We began our friendship in first grade and for many years did almost everything together. We went to church together and stole peanuts together. On our way to school every day we ate our lunch together, always tuna. Together we double dated, went to the beach, hunted, raised hell, occasionally worked together, were in each other's weddings and enjoyed our young children together. Always a smile, always pleasant, even through difficult times.
Even when we were apart I felt your presence. Thank you for so many great memories. Your peace is well deserved.
Your friend Mark

“ On my first date with Ron we went to the movies. American Graffiti had just opened and it was a nostalgic movie of Ron's generation (slightly before mine). Well, there were many funny things in this movie and once Ron began laughing he was on a roll and couldn't stop. Although it was not as side splitting to me; he had me going as well. And I enjoyed his sense of humor for 45 more wonderful years. I will always love you Ron, your wife Marie.

Ron was a great friend of Denise & mine when we were building our Dome House in Brimfield Ron and Marie were there every weekend to help and pushing us to keep working. I have many fond memories of that time that I will remember forever.
