

Rosalie Smola

January 21, 1938 - January 20, 2012

WEST HARTFORD, CT--Rosalie Smola, 73, passed away peacefully on Friday, January 20, 2012, at her residence. Born on January 21, 1938, a daughter of the late John and Aniela (Welcz) Smola, she was raised in Wilbraham and relocated to West Hartford after completing her education. A graduate of the former Technical High School in Springfield, and of the Northampton School of Business, Rosalie was a buyer in the women's apparel department of G. Fox and Co. in Hartford. Rosalie is survived by her loving siblings, Louis Smola of Holyoke, Mary Mizejewski of Chicopee, and Barbara Kuhn and her husband Donald of Wilbraham; her brother-in-law, Thomas Cocchi; and several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her brother Chester Smola, and sisters, Amelia Cavicchioli, Josephine DeFusco, and Elizabeth Cocchi. Family and friends are invited to a Mass of Christian Burial for Rosalie on Friday, February 17, 2012 at 11 AM in Immaculate Conception Church, 25 Parker St., Indian Orchard. Burial is private and at the convenience of the family. Memorial contributions may be made to Immaculate Conception Church, Renovation Fund, 25 Parker St., Indian Orchard, MA 01151. Kozikowski Funeral Home of Chicopee is assisting with arrangements.

.