

Ruth Lareau

October 8, 1945 - December 24, 2020

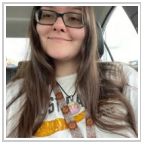

Ruth (Smith)Lareau, 75, passed away peacefully on Thursday, December 24, 2020 at Baystate Medical Center. Born October 8, 1945, daughter of the late Clarence and Helen (Horacek) Smith, she was a longtime Chicopee resident. Ruth was a retired credit manager for AG Spalding Co. and later Callaway Golf Co. She loved the beach, doing puzzles and crafts at the RiverMills Center. Ruth is survived by her beloved husband of fifteen years, Robert Lareau; loving daughter, Yvonne Provost; step-daughter Marissa Riberdy; cherished grandchildren, Nathan and Tyler Riberdy, Kristen Provost and boyfriend, Christian Kelly; brother, Billy Smith and wife Jayne; two sisters, Betty Platt and husband Mark and Bonnie Daley and husband Bob; and three nephews Jonathan, Nicholas, and Charlie. Due to current restrictions the family will announce a memorial service at a later date.

“ My sympathies to Ruth's family. Back in the late 1970s, I was a young supervisor at Spalding. Ruth was my go-to person. She was smart, resourceful, quick-acting, and I can't thank her enough for all her support over several years. Rest in peace, Ruth. You will be missed.

“"Ruthie", you were a great and dear friend. I will miss our many phone conversations and lunches and all the laughing we did. It was great working with you at Spalding and I will remember you always. You will be forever in my heart. My deepest sympathy to Bob, Yvonne, and Kristen and all the family. Love, Anne and Kenny Robert.
