

Stefanida Doroshenko

April 13, 1933 - July 23, 2021

Stefanida Doroshenko, 88, passed away in West Springfield, on Friday, July 23, 2021. Born April 13, 1933 in Belarus, she is the daughter of Joseph and Agafia Rusakovich. Stefanida was married to Yefrem Doroshenko until his passing in July 2016. Stefanida was a faithful woman of God and a member of Church of Hope in Feeding Hills, MA. She was a true Christian who passionately prayed for and talked kindly of everyone she knew. Those who knew her described her as selfless, loving, kind, sacrificial and sweet. She dedicated her entire life to serving Christ and others—first, helping raise and take care of her younger siblings in Belarus and later on in life, helping and loving on her daughter and grandchildren. Her grandchildren lovingly recall all the great memories along with everything she had taught them and all of the time spent together. She taught them how to read in Russian, how to swim, how to ride a bike, and would bring them daily to the park or local pool when they were growing up. Most importantly, her heartfelt prayers propelled her daughter and grandchildren all throughout their lives. The presence and impact of those prayers were truly felt by her family and will be missed. Stefanida always put those she loved first, above herself. Even in pain, she hardly ever complained or thought of herself but rather took to consideration other peoples' comfort and care. She truly leaves behind a legacy of genuine love. Stefanida will be dearly missed by her surviving family. She is survived by her loving daughter Alla Yanyuk, her loving grandchildren and great-grandchildren: Eduard Yanyuk and his wife Anastasia with children Angelina and Anatoliy, Sergey Yanyuk and his wife Sophia with children Juliya and Elijah, Tatyana Sullivan and her husband Joseph with children Benjamin and Victoria, Jennifer Martynyuk and her husband Artem with children Eva and August, and Ines Kolomiyets and her husband Vladimir. Calling hours for Stefanida are on Wednesday at 7 pm at Church of Hope, 176 Garden Street, Feeding Hills. Funeral Services for Stefanida will be held at Church of Hope on Thursday at 9 am followed by burial in Fairview Cemetery in Chicopee at 10 am.
